PRE-FILING ANNOUNCEMENTS

On May 30, 1997 broadcast station KARK-TV was granted a license by the Federal Communications Commission to serve the public interest as a public trustee until June 1, 2005.

KARK-TV's license will expire on June 1, 2005. Nexstar Broadcasting, Inc. must file an application for renewal for KARK-TV with the FCC on February 1, 2005. When filed, a copy of this application will be available for public inspection during our regular business hours. The application will contain information concerning the station's performance during the past eight years.

Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal application and to whether this station has operated in the public interest should file comments and petitions with the FCC by May 1, 2005.

Further information concerning the FCC's broadcast license renewal process is available at 1401 West Capitol Avenue, Suite 104, Little Rock, Arkansas, or may be obtained from the FCC, Washington, DC 20554.

Post-Filing Announcements

On May 30, 1997 broadcast station KARK-TV was granted a license by the Federal Communications Commission to serve the public interest as a public trustee until June 1, 2005.

Our license will expire on June 1, 2005. We have filed an application for renewal with the FCC. A copy of this application is available for public inspection during our regular business hours. It contains information concerning this station's performance during the last seven years.

Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal application and to whether this station has operated in the public interest should file comments and petitions with the FCC by May 1, 2005.

Further information concerning the FCC's broadcast license renewal process is available at 1401 West Capitol Avenue, Suite 104, Little Rock, Arkansas, or may be obtained from the FCC, Washington, D.C. 20554.

This Certificate of Compliance was placed in KARK-TV's public inspection file on April 22, 2005. This Certificate will be kept in the public inspection file for as long as the renewal application, to which it refers, is retained.
